

Should you DUMP HIM?

If this sounds like your lawn care provider, you should kick him out!

- ☒ His idea of a "uniform" is the same sleeveless shirt he wore yesterday.
- ☐ He shows up at 11:30 a.m. on the dot. Your appointment was at 8 a.m.
- ☐ He always remembers to gather the clippings, right on your sidewalk.
- ☐ After an hour of work, he throws his shirt in the bed of his truck.
- ☐ You can't tell what's worse. The rusted-out pickup or the mower that belches smoke.
- ☐ Instead of offering a detailed explanation of what's wrong with your lawn he tells you, "It's big boy stuff."
- ☐ He conducts a free sprinkler inspection by sipping from your hose.
- ☐ The only similarity between his estimate and your bill is your name at the top.
- ☐ You work harder cleaning up the mess he left behind than he did making it.
- ☐ He ends every job with the comment, "We'll see what day we can come by next week."

If even one of these sounds familiar to you, it's time to give your lawn care provider the boot and call [companyname].
